

The Denslows: Missouri's Masonic Treasure

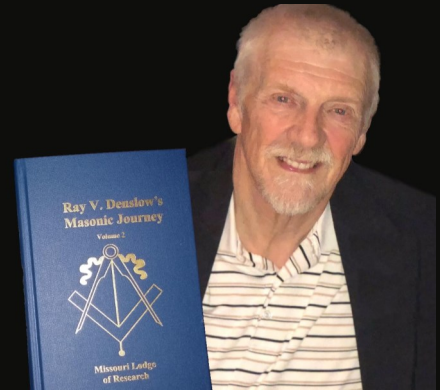

A look at the incredible duo of prolific Masonic authors from Missouri, Ray and William Denslow, with an emphasis on the works, career and Masonic journey of Ray and his impact on the Masonic Fraternity world wide.

Missouri Lodge of Research Lunch & Lecture
Open To All on Saturday June 8, 2019 at 12:30 PM
Capital Plaza Hotel in Jefferson City, Missouri

About Our Speaker

Steven L. Harrison, 33°, FMLR

- Past Master, Missouri Lodge of Research
- Fellow, Missouri Lodge of Research
- Past Master, Liberty Lodge #31, Liberty, Missouri
- 33°, Inspector General Honorary, Scottish Rite
- Author, Editor of several books and articles on Freemasonry
- Regular contributor to the Midnight Freemasons blog
- Regular contributor on the Whence Came You podcast

Steve received his Masonic degrees in Liberty Lodge #31, Liberty, Missouri in 1999. He served as its Worshipful Master in 2003-04, with his Lodge earning the Truman level achievement award for his year.

MWB John B. Broyles appointed him to the advancing line of the Missouri Lodge of Research in 2007, where he served until becoming Master in 2013-14. In 2011, Steve was named a Fellow of the Missouri Lodge of Research.

For a decade, he served as Editor of the Missouri Freemason magazine. In addition, he has contributed to several other Masonic publications including his work as a regular contributor to the respected Midnight Freemasons blog. He appears bi-weekly on the Whence Came You podcast where he hosts the "Masonic Minute" segment, which recently celebrated its 100th episode on the well-known show.

Steve has authored three books on Freemasonry: Freemasonry Crosses the Mississippi, Freemasons - Tales From the Craft, and Freemasons at Oak Island. He has edited three additional Masonic books: The Masonic Memoranda of Frederic L. Billon and Ray Denslow's Masonic Journey volumes 1 and 2. He has served as Chair of the Committee on Masonic Publications on several occasions.

In addition to his work with the Midnight Freemasons, his personal Masonic blog, "One Minute Mason" can be found at <http://oneminutemason.blogspot.com/>. His "Masonic Minute" videos are all available on the YouTube "One Minute Mason" channel.

